Product Description

Advent calendar "Erzgebirge workshop"

The advent calendar shows a view into an Erzgebirge carving workshop, especially that of a hoop turner. The craft of the hoop turner in the Erzgebirge was developed around 1800 near Seiffen. Hoop turning is still an important craft in the manufacture of toys today. Christmas pyramids and other Christmas table and room decorations. Tire turning is an integral part of Erzgebirge folk art. When turning a piece of wood on the wood lathe a wooden ring is created, the profile of the desired figure, e.g. of an animal, house or other figures.

The Erzgebirge Toy Museum in Seiffen is dedicating part of its exhibition to the hoop-making trade. Our Advent calendar hides behind the windows pictures with Erzgebirge figures such as incense smokers, Nutcracker, candle arch, angel and miner and more. We wish all the fans a lot of fun opening the windows
