Product Description

Advent calendar "Colmar (France)"

Colmar in Alsace is one of the most enchanting French towns. Romantic lanes, such as the Rue des Marchands, ornate centuries-old half-timbered houses, narrow channels of the river Lauch, called Little Venice, countless small pretty street cafes. In addition, interesting churches and museums with valuable art treasures such as the Isenheim Altar, modern shops that invite you to shop, traditional old shops that offer Alsatian specialties and thousands of flowers that decorate streets and houses - that is Colmar. Everyone is completely enchanted by this town. One could get the impression that the Colmarer had invented Christmas.

They decorate their streets and houses so stylishly and with incredible imagination. If you have not been to Colmar yet, then you must go. Or you buy this advent calendar, which reflects the magical Christmas spirit of Colmar well. The windows are carefully integrated into the beautiful architecture, so that the beauty of the motif is not destroyed even if all the windows are open. The things behind the windows are carefully selected and could actually be located there.
