Product Description

Advent calendar "Salzburg Dom"

The "Salzburg Dom" is the cathedral of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Salzburg and is dedicated to St. Rupert and Virgil. The structure of the Salzburg Cathedral was created in early Baroque and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Salzburg Cathedral is bordered on the side by Residenzplatz and Kapitalplatz. The cathedral square is surrounded by the magnificent Baroque faade of the Salzburg Cathedral, the Residenz and the St. Petersstift. The cathedral square is the venue of the Salzburg Festival. The famous play "Jedermann" by Hugo von Hoffmannsthal was written especially for the cathedral square in Salzburg and is performed annually at the Salzburg Festival on the cathedral square.

The Salvator bell was made by the Salzburg bell foundry Oberascher and was consecrated in 1961. The Salvator bell ranks in the largest church bells in the world and is the second largest church bell in Austria after the Pummerin in St. Stephen's Cathedral in Vienna. The cathedral ring of the Salzburg Cathedral is considered the most beautiful in Austria. An advent calendar with the Salzburg Cathedral is a must in the assortment of Brück & Sohn. It is a nice souvenir for anyone who likes to remember his visit to Salzburg during the Advent season.
