Product Description

DROPLET Amenity Tray, transparent

This delicate yet modern amenity tray has soft, curved lines, while the clear acrylic material makes it modern. Nevertheless, it is versatile enough for almost any room. Perfect as a tray for jewelry, makeup brushes, keys at an entryway and more. It will certainly be difficult for you to decide in which room you want to place this multipurpose piece.

Droplet is easy to clean and very durable, because it is made of acrylic. Great for gift-giving, you can also use the tray as a base when packaging several accessories as a gift.

A beautiful addition to the Umbra Droplet Collection for bathroom accessories with soap dispenser (334865), toothbrush holder (334868) and soap dish (334863).
