Product Description

UDRY draining rack, gray

Umbra Udry is a draining rack above the sink and a microfiber draining mat, foldable, space-saving and easy to stow.

Udry consists of a microfiber draining mat and a separate draining rack that can be placed either on the mat or above the sink. A removable cutlery basket is also included. This practical 2-in-1 solution offers plenty of space for your dishes and can be rolled up and stowed away in no time. The BPA-free draining rack can be attached in the middle or on the side of the draining mat and with 16 rows offers plenty of space for dishes and pots. Alternatively, the draining rack can also be attached above the sink, the arms can be extended up to 56 cm.

This simple and lightweight draining rack looks great on any work surface and offers a surprising amount of storage space for dishes. When Udry is not needed, it can be rolled up and stowed away in no time. The draining rack is made of BPA-free plastic and is dishwasher safe (upper compartment). The microfiber mat is machine washable.

Are you looking for a practical and space-saving dish dryer for your kitchen that also looks stylish? Then order your Udry from Umbra today.
