Product Description

When the salad comes rowing to the table for a change, the BOAT bowl is at the start. With the acacia wood cutlery in the shape of a paddle and the corresponding notches on the rim of the bowl, nothing stands in the way of an extensive boat trip in the kitchen sink when washing the salad. The enamel lining is food-safe, robust and durable. Thanks to the funny idea of designer Jörg Langkop, the table is set for new shores with a twinkle in the eye.
