Product Description

Who would have thought that breaking up could be so beautiful? Thanks to Mario Taepper's award-winning design, it's finally over and done with unhygienic digging around in other people's peanut bowls, hurray! From now on, any kind of delicate nibble can be elegantly transported to the palm of your hand with a casual flick of the wrist. That has style and a lot of taste anyway.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
