Product Description

One tray, two surfaces, several functions, all well thought out! Starting with the border, which prevents the goods to be carried from simply wandering off in a brief phase of inattention. Interrupted by two very practical recessed grips, which of course need no further explanation. Topped by an imitation leather pad that prevents slipping during transport and can be washed many times without ever complaining. Crowned by a high-gloss back that doubles the already high champagne glamour factor thanks to the reflection. A toast to FROID!

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
