Product Description

The impressive 10 mm deep glass panel alone crowns ROOM as a visual heavyweight on the desk or sideboard. The pleasantly unadorned glass frame with its retro look is almost perfectly destined for a permanent place in the office. Thanks to the mirrored back in combination with the elegantly curved, practical stand, it is one of the few frames that can also be seen from behind. The lower edge made of highly polished nickel testifies to a high degree of aesthetics and at the same time offers a kind of stage for all personal photos and illustrations.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
