Product Description

SUN IN THE HOUSE ALL YEAR ROUND Even on rainy days, BIANCO conveys a year-round Mediterranean Santorini summer holiday feeling within your own four walls. As is so often the case, small ideas make a big difference: the filigree structure is worked into the surface by hand using a simple comb, giving each pot its unique, one-of-a-kind charm. The vases and bowls come to life with particularly crisp, strong colours as a contrast. But even without decoration, the unusual texture in combination with the muted white colour goes well with any modern interior. PERFECT MATCH Even without decoration, the unusual texture in combination with the muted white colour goes well with any modern interior. UNSCHULD IN WEISS Admittedly, a vase made of bare steel is not particularly sexy - even if it is very robust. However, this supposed flaw changes abruptly thanks to the coating with a special lacquer layer, which is completely MADE BY PEOPLE As is so often the case, small ideas make a big difference. With a
