Product Description

Introducing: Bellwood stacking bins - designed for easy organisation! These practical bins make organising any space quick and easy. Made from recycled plastic and sustainable wood, these stackable bins are durable. They also come with integrated handles, making them easy to transport no matter how full they get! Plus, they're available in two sizes - one is just right for all those cereal boxes, the other is perfect for storing snacks, condiments, tinned food and anything else you need. Even better, you can remove the dividers so you can use them in the way that best suits your organisation needs. Combine them with other items from our Bellwood Pantry Collection to create a unified look. Stackable & space-saving bins Use multiple Bellwood bins to stack on top of each other to create a space-saving storage solution for your pantry, cupboard and more; large bin measures Made from recycled plastic and sustainable wood The complete Bellwood Pantry Collection is made from recycled plastic and sustainable wood.
