Product Description

As early as the fourth century B.C., the Greek philosopher PLATON was already working on the ideal shape of the earth. The new emform globe by young designer Louise Onken is just as perfectly shaped. The 330 x 300 millimetre globe is attached to a solid oak base measuring 180 x 180 x 40 mm using a magnet, allowing it to be rotated as required and easily removed. There are different versions to choose from depending on your requirements.
