Product Description

Bath glove SISAL NATURE This bath glove made from natural sisal is the perfect choice for a refreshing and soothing body care routine. The coarse yet skin-friendly texture of the sisal material is ideal for gentle exfoliation that removes dead skin cells, stimulates circulation and leaves the skin radiant and supple. Thanks to its ergonomic shape, the glove is comfortable to put on and allows precise application to all parts of the body. The natural material is not only durable and hard-wearing, but also environmentally friendly and biodegradable. Equipped with a practical hanging loop, the glove can be easily dried after use, keeping it hygienic and providing long-lasting pleasure. This practical and sustainable grooming accessory is an indispensable companion for a conscious and soothing grooming experience. Material: 100% sisal, 2% cotton Dimensions: 8.7 x 7.1 cm
