Product Description

The Bellwood Coat Rack from Umbra combines modern design with functional sophistication. With its clear, Scandinavian-inspired design language and warm wooden details, this coat rack is a stylish statement for any entrance area, hallway or dressing room. The black, powder-coated steel frame ensures stability and durability, while the rounded hooks made from sustainably sourced wood create a harmonious contrast. Whether coats, bags, hats or scarves - the Bellwood Coat Rack offers sufficient space without appearing bulky. Thanks to its slim silhouette, it also fits into smaller rooms and blends effortlessly into various interior styles - from modern to Scandinavian to minimalist. Typical Umbra: well thought-out design that perfectly combines form and function.
